

Crack the Hash

The screenshot shows the completion screen for the 'Crack the Hash' challenge on TryHackMe. At the top center is a red octopus icon inside a green circle. Below it, the text 'You did it! 🎉 Crack the hash complete!' is displayed. To the left of the message are five stats in blue boxes: 'Points earned' (270), 'Completed tasks' (2), 'Room type' (Challenge), 'Difficulty' (Easy), and 'Streak' (1). Below these stats, a banner indicates '83,596 users are actively learning this week' with small user icons. At the bottom of the main section are buttons for 'Leave Feedback' and 'Continue'. The navigation bar at the top includes 'Try Hack Me', 'Dashboard', 'Learn' (selected), 'Practice', 'Compete', 'Access Machines', a search bar, a notifications icon, a 'Go Premium' button, and a user profile icon. The challenge details below show 'Crack the hash' as a 'Cracking hashes challenges' room, estimated to take 45 min, with 1,27,852 participants. Buttons for sharing achievements, starting an AttackBox, saving the room, recommending it, and viewing options are available. A note about the beta VM region in Asia is shown in a box with 'More Info' and 'X' buttons. At the bottom are links for 'Chart', 'Scoreboard', and 'Write-ups'.
